

Book Review—"Climate of Hope: How Cities, Businesses, and Citizens Can Save The Planet"

By Jeff Hoffman, President, Jeff Hoffman Associates, LLC. The title of this book is "Climate of Hope: How Cities, Businesses, and Citizens Can Save The Planet" by Michael Bloomberg and Carl Pope. The book is a collection of essays that explore the role of cities, businesses, and citizens in addressing climate change. The authors argue that while governments are often slow to act, cities, businesses, and citizens can take immediate action to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and mitigate the effects of climate change. The book provides a comprehensive overview of the current climate change debate and offers practical solutions for each of these groups. It is a well-written and informative book that is highly recommended for anyone interested in climate change.
